DIOCESAN SAFEGUARDING DAY

Next weekend 28th & 29th of September 2019

Diocesan Safeguarding Sunday will take place. This year we mark the 10th Anniversary of the Murphy Report which highlighted the horrendous abuse that many children suffered in our Diocese. Safeguarding Sunday is an opportunity for us to remember all those affected by abuse but also an opportunity to redouble our efforts, ensuring that children and vulnerable adults are always safe in our parishes.

50/50 RAFFLE DRAW

Tickets will be available at the 6pm vigil Mass (Saturday) and 9.30am & 11.30 am Mass (Sunday). Tickets will be available to buy for the thirty minutes before the start of Mass Each ticket costs €5.

At the end of the Mass, the priest will draw a ticket and announce the winner .

The winner will receive 50% (fifty percent) of the income.

The Parish Fund will receive 50% (fifty percent) of the income.

No tickets will be available to buy once the Mass has started.

Since the winner will be in the congregation, the first prize will be collected before anyone leaves the church. There will be no monies carried forward from week to week. Should a winner decline their prize, all the income will be lodged to the Parish Fund.

DIVINE MERCY MONTHLY MASS

Takes place on Tuesday 24th of September at 7.30pm.
